... is the practice of changing the natural or artificial color of human hair for cosmetic, fashion, or gray-coverage reasons

...is the power or capacity to affect the behavior, thoughts, opinions, or development of people and things without using direct force or orders.

To ... means to keep someone or something safe from harm, damage, injury, or loss.

... is a verb that means to make or become free from curves, bends, angles, or disorder.

... means a video, image, text, or story spreads rapidly and widely across the internet through person-to-person sharing on social media, messaging apps, and websites.

A ... is a small, pierced piece of material—such as glass, wood, plastic, stone, or bone—with a central hole designed for stringing or threading.

A ... is a way to gather information, check conditions, or examine a subject. It can be a noun or a verb depending on how it is used.

... to the reason why something, especially something bad, happens

The word ... is a verb that means to bounce back light, heat, or sound, to show an image like a mirror, to express or be a sign of something, or to think carefully about past events

...When fame, success, or power makes a person think they are much more important or clever than they actually are

...to live in a way that is dishonest because you are pretending to be something that you are not, to yourself or to other people

... to get something that is useful, that gives you an advantage, or that is in some way positive, especially over a period of time

...not able or not likely to cause harm

LIVEWORKSHEETS