2 Read the information and complete the chart.

Four children are sitting at a table. There are two boys and two girls. Peter is sitting between Vicky and Clare. Peter couldn't dance when he was three. Jack is sitting opposite a boy. Jack could play the piano when he was six. The boy sitting opposite Jack could read when he was five. Vicky could swim when she was four, but she couldn't skip when she was two. Clare couldn't ride a bike when she was five. She could hop when she was six. Jack couldn't walk when he was one.

	couldn't	could
Peter	couldn't dance when he was three.
Jack
Vicky		could swim when she was four.
Claire

LIVEWORKSHEETS