TET IN MY VILLAGE

My name is Nam. I live in a small village in Vietnam. Tet is my favourite holiday.

Before Tet, people in my village clean their houses and streets. Many families buy peach blossoms or apricot blossoms. The shops are busy because people go shopping for food and clothes.

On New Year's Day, I wear new clothes and visit my grandparents with my parents. I get lucky money from my grandparents. In the afternoon, my family visits a pagoda to pray for good luck and health.

I like Tet because the village is beautiful and everyone is happy.
