IELTS Reading - Summary Completion Exercise

Crop-growing skyscrapers

Task: Complete the summary below.

Choose ONE WORD OR A PHRASE from the provided vocabulary list for each answer to complete the summary.

By 2050, the world's (1) _____ will increase significantly. To provide enough food without needing more (2) _____, a new (3) _____ is required. One potential solution is (4) _____, which involves growing crops in multi-storey buildings. Because these buildings would be (5) _____ in (6) _____ centres, the distance food is transported would be greatly (7) _____.

Furthermore, this system allows crops to be produced (8) _____ rather than depending on the season, completely eliminating the need for harmful chemicals such as (9) _____ and fertilisers. However, one major drawback is the high (10) _____ energy required for (11) _____ lighting. Because of this cost, most experts currently believe it is more (12) _____ that we will simply use the space available on city (13) _____ instead.

all year round	vertical farming	diminished	likely	artificial	rooftops	Fossil fuel
consumption of	population	situated	agricultural land	pesticides	methane	method

Answer:

Glass Making

Task: Complete the summary below.

Choose NO MORE THAN THREE WORDS from the provided list for each answer.

Before the invention of a (1) _____, glass making was mostly a semi-automatic process. However, a visionary factory-owner installed equipment capable of producing (2) _____ three times faster. Today, operating in a fiercely competitive global market, maintaining a strong (3) _____ is critical to manufacturers. Moreover, there is growing consumer concern for the environment, especially regarding glass containers ending up in a (4) _____. To address this demand for sustainability, producers now melt recycled glass instead of relying entirely on (5) _____.

market share	raw materials	fully automated machine	producers	andfill	founder	bottles	Previous	three times	glass containers

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Answer

Stepwells

Task: Complete the summary below.
Choose NO MORE THAN TWO WORDS from the provided list for each answer.

For a millennium, stepwells have been fundamental to life in north-western India. They offered inhabitants a reliable method for gaining access to (1) _____ and water for (2) _____. However, the significance of these spectacular monuments goes beyond their utilitarian application. In their heyday, these architecturally complex structures served as unique public spaces for leisure, relaxation, and (3) _____. Dotted across the (4) _____, they also functioned as (5) _____ for the community. To reach the water as it recedes, people must negotiate a series of descending steps.

fresh groundwater	worship	irrigation	A millennium	Architecturally complex	resting places	Desert	Method	Ancient	desert

Answer :

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS