READING

6 Read the text about Ireland. Match the names (1–5) to the facts (a–f).

MY IRELAND

Hi, I'm Liam and I'm Irish. The Republic of Ireland is not part of the United Kingdom – it's a different country in the north-west of Europe. The Irish name for Ireland is Eire, and the languages here are Irish and English.

Ireland is in the European Union. The money in Ireland isn't the British pound, but the euro. The capital city is Dublin. It's a nice city and it's very big. Dublin has got an Irish name, too. It's Baile Átha Cliath. Dublin is in the east of Ireland, near the River Liffey. The city is 1,000 years old and it has got a lot of beautiful places to visit, like the Dublin Castle or Trinity College, the university of Dublin.

I'm not from Dublin. I'm from Cork. Cork is a big city, too. It's in the south of Ireland. The centre of the city is very nice because it's on the River Lee. This is my favourite place. It has got a lot of great shops and fast food restaurants.

0	Eire	a	1,000 years old
1	euro	b	a river near the capital
2	Dublin	c	Liam is from this city
3	Liffey	d	money in Ireland
4	Trinity	e	a famous university
5	Cork	f	the Irish name for Ireland
