A) Read the story: "Tom's Football Match".

Tom is a young boy who loves football. Every day, he plays football with his friends at the park. Last Saturday, Tom had a very important football match. He was very excited, so he woke up early.

Tom put on his favorite football t-shirt and shorts. His mom made him a good breakfast. "You need energy," she said. Tom ate quickly and ran to the football field. His dad and mom came to watch him play. Tom smiled when he saw his parents cheering.

The game started at 10 AM. Tom played very well. He ran fast and kicked the ball many times. In the first half, Tom's team scored two goals. The other team scored only one goal. Tom was happy, but he was also tired. He worked hard to help his team.

During the break, Tom drank some water and listened to his coach. The coach said, "Good job, team! Keep playing strong!" In the second half, Tom's team played even better. Tom passed the ball to his friend, and his friend scored a third goal. Everyone cheered loudly, and Tom felt proud of his team.

At the end of the game, Tom's team won the match, 3-1. Tom was very proud, and his parents were proud of him, too. After the game, they went to a small restaurant to have lunch and celebrate. Tom ate pizza and ice cream. He was tired, but he felt very happy.

That night, Tom went to bed early. He dreamed about playing more football matches and scoring many goals!
