An Unexpected Adventure

Last Saturday, Emily and her younger brother Jack decided to visit their grandparents in a small village. They _____ home early in the morning because they wanted to catch the first train.

At the station, Emily _____ two tickets while Jack looked for a place to sit. Unfortunately, they _____ the announcement about a change to the train schedule. Their train was delayed by forty minutes.

While they were waiting, Jack _____ a small wallet under a bench. He opened it carefully and _____ an identity card inside. Emily suggested taking it to the information desk, but Jack _____ it there immediately. They finally gave it to a station employee.

When the train arrived, they quickly got on. During the journey, they _____ an elderly woman who was travelling to the same village. She told them an interesting story about her childhood. Jack _____ her stories were fascinating.

When they arrived, their grandfather was waiting outside the station. He _____ his old car to pick them up. On the way home, Emily realised that she had left her phone on the train. She _____ what to do.

Luckily, the elderly woman had found the phone and _____ it to the train staff. Later that afternoon, the station called Emily's grandfather. He went back to collect it.

Emily and Jack were delighted. They had an unexpected adventure, and they _____ that a small act of kindness could make someone's day much better.
