PASSIVE VOICE

ACTIVE AND PASSIVE SENTENCE TRANSFORMATION

Name: _____ Class: _____

Date: _____ Score: _____

Instructions: Read each sentence carefully. Identify its tense and grammatical structure, then change it into the opposite voice. Pay attention to the correct verb form, subject, object, and the use of by when necessary.

PART A – CHANGE THE ACTIVE SENTENCES INTO PASSIVE VOICE

1. The students clean their classrooms every morning.

2. My mother is preparing a delicious meal in the kitchen.

3. The committee organized an English competition last month.

4. The workers were repairing the school building when the rain started.

5. The teacher has explained the lesson clearly.

6. The school will announce the competition winners tomorrow.

7. The principal is going to invite several guest speakers to the seminar.

8. The students had completed their assignments before the teacher entered the classroom.

9. Someone has stolen my bicycle from the parking area.

10. The school must provide all students with equal learning opportunities.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

PASSIVE VOICE – CONTINUED

ACTIVE AND PASSIVE SENTENCE TRANSFORMATION

PART B – CHANGE THE PASSIVE SENTENCES INTO ACTIVE VOICE

11. The classroom is cleaned by the students every afternoon.

12. A new English learning application is being developed by the IT team.

13. The invitations were sent to all parents yesterday.

14. The school hall was being decorated by the students when the guests arrived.

15. The final examination results have been announced by the principal.

16. The damaged computers will be repaired by the technicians next week.

17. The students are going to be given additional assignments by their English teacher.

18. The project had been completed by the team before the deadline.

19. The rules must be followed by all students during the examination.

20. Several important books can be borrowed from the school library.

LIVEWORKSHEETS