Relative Pronouns: Who, That, and Where

Connecting people, things, and places in English sentences

Name: _____ Date: _____

Part 1: Warm-Up Categorization

Sort the words from the word bank into the correct category below based on which relative word describes them.

teacher library pencil doctor stadium bicycle

People (who)	Things & Animals (that)	Places (where)

Part 2: Complete the Sentences

Choose who, that, or where to complete each sentence correctly.

1. A doctor is a person _____ helps sick people.
2. This is the restaurant _____ we ate dinner last night.
3. Did you see the movie _____ won the award?
4. That is the boy _____ lives across the street from me.
5. I want to visit the museum _____ they keep the dinosaur bones.
6. She bought a new phone _____ has a really good camera.
7. Mrs. Alvarez is the teacher _____ taught us Spanish last year.
8. We went back to the beach _____ we found those cool seashells.
9. Look at the cat _____ is sleeping on the sofa!
10. This is the classroom _____ we take our English tests.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Part 3: Combine the Sentences

Rewrite the two short sentences as one complete sentence using who, that, or where. Remember to start with a capital letter and end with a period.

> Example: That is the library. I study there. → That is the library where I study.

1. I met a woman. She speaks four languages.

   _____

2. Here is the key. It opens the front door.

   _____

3. That is the stadium. Our team won the championship there.

   _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS