Unit 10 – Fame Lesson A: The Rise to Fame Third Conditional.

Third Conditional: Practice Activities

Grade 9 • Intermediate English • Theme: Fame

Student name.

Third Conditional: Quick Reference

Use the third conditional to talk about unreal or imagined past situations and their possible results in public life, performances, and celebrity careers.

Element	Form	Fame-themed example
if clause	had + past participle	If the singer had practiced, she would have impressed the judges.
possible result	would have + past participle	If he had accepted the role, he would have become famous.
possible ability	could have + past participle	If I had prepared for the interview, I could have answered confidently.
possible chance	might have + past participle	If Lena had posted the performance, fans might have shared it.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Negative forms: Use had not / hadn't in the if clause and would not have / wouldn't have in the result clause.

Activity 1: Complete the Sentences

Complete each sentence with the correct verb form in the if clause. Use the past perfect: had + past participle.

Model: If the actor had rehearsed, she would have given a stronger performance.

1. If the singer _____ (arrive) early for the interview, she could have met more fans.

2. If the actor _____ (thank) the audience, they might have shared the performance online.

3. If the director _____ (choose) Maya, she would have appeared in the film.

Activity 2: Correct the Errors

Each sentence has one mistake. Write the corrected sentence on the lines below it.

1. If we would have promoted her video, it would have reached more fans.

_____

_____

2. If she had came to the interview, she would have met the reporters.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. If I have had more confidence, I would have performed on stage.

Activity 3: Create Your Own Sentences

Use each picture prompt and sentence starter to write one third conditional sentence. Add details of your own.

🎤 Stage Performance

Imagine a performer singing or acting on a bright stage.

Starter: If I...

📸 Red-Carpet Event

Imagine your friend attending a celebrity event with cameras and reporters.

Starter: If my friend...

📱 Fans & Social Media

Imagine fans reacting to a performer's post or live video.

Starter: The performer might...

🏆 Award or Trophy

Imagine receiving an award after a successful performance.

Starter: If I hadn't...

Activity 4: Explain the Reality

Explain what actually happened. Use negative forms where appropriate.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Model: The performer didn't thank the fans, so they didn't stay for the encore.

1. If the actor had answered the interview question, the audience would have learned more about the role.

2. If we had shared the singer's performance online, more fans might have watched it.

3. If Maya had practiced her award speech, she could have spoken more confidently.

LIVEWORKSHEETS