Watch the video and answer the questions.

Exercise 1. Choose the correct answer (A, B, C or D).

1. What were computers like 20 or 30 years ago?

A. They were small and powerful.
C. They were easy to use.
B. They were big and limited.
D. They were very expensive.

2. What did the speaker do on the computer when he was six?

A. He studied English.
C. He played games.
B. He watched videos.
D. He sent emails.

3. What kind of phones did most people use before cell phones became popular?

A. Smartphones
C. Tablets
B. Landlines
D. Computers

4. What does the speaker use the internet for?

A. Only for shopping.
C. For working, studying, shopping and entertainment.
B. Only for playing games.
D. For making phone calls.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. How did people travel before cars were invented?

A. By bus or train.

B. By bicycle or plane.

C. By horse or on foot.

D. By motorbike.

6. What did people use for light at night before electricity?

A. Computers and televisions.

B. Candles and fire.

C. Cell phones and lamps.

D. Cars and buses.

7. What did families often do in the evenings in the past?

A. They watched television together.

B. They played computer games.

C. They used the internet.

D. They watched films on their phones.

8. What do many young people prefer doing today?

A. Reading newspapers.

B. Watching old televisions.

C. Using computers and cell phones.

D. Listening to the radio.

Exercise 2. Listen again and complete the sentences with ONE word from the video.

1. Computers in the past were really _____ and could not do many things.
2. When the speaker was six, he liked playing computer _____.
3. Before cell phones, most people used _____ inside their houses.
4. People use the internet to work, study, shop and _____ themselves.
5. Before cars, people travelled by _____ or on foot.
6. Before electricity, people used candles and _____ for light at night.
7. When the electricity goes _____, many things stop working.
8. In the past, families often sat down in the evenings and watched _____ together.

LIVEWORKSHEETS