Read Valeria's story.

My name is Valeria Ramírez. I am 17 years old and I live in Machala, Ecuador, with my parents and my little brother, Mateo. I am in my last year of high school.

On weekdays, I wake up at 5:45 because my classes start at 7:00. First, I take a quick shower and get dressed in my school uniform. Then, I have breakfast with my family. I usually have bread, cheese and a cup of coffee, but on Fridays my mother makes bolón de verde — my favourite!

I go to school by bus. The trip takes about twenty minutes. At school, I have six lessons. My favourite subject is English, but I don't like Chemistry very much. We have a break at 10:00, and I often eat a sandwich with my friends.

School finishes at 1:30. I go home and have lunch with my grandmother. In the afternoon, I do my homework, and on Tuesdays and Thursdays I go to dance classes.

In the evening, we have dinner at about 7:30. After dinner, I sometimes watch a series or chat with my friends on my phone. I never go to bed late on school days. I go to bed at 10:00 because I need to wake up early the next morning!
