Exercise 1. Complete each sentence with the correct word or phrase from the box. Use each answer only once. There are TWO extra expressions.

aesthetic needs -scientific breakthroughs – dominate society – emotional expression – living standards – critical thinking – artistic contributions – technological innovations – psychological comfort – material progress – cope with stress – stimulate creativity – practical progress - meaningful and fulfilling

1. Recent _____ in medicine have enabled doctors to treat diseases that were once considered incurable.
2. The development of artificial intelligence and robotics has led to significant _____ in various industries.
3. Social media platforms increasingly _____, influencing how people communicate, work and obtain information.
4. Improvements in healthcare, education and housing have significantly raised people's _____.
5. Music, painting and literature are important _____ that help shape human civilization.
6. Art provides individuals with a means of _____, allowing them to communicate feelings that words cannot easily describe.
7. Listening to relaxing music can provide _____ and help people feel less anxious.
8. Beautiful paintings and moving musical performances can _____ in their audiences.
9. Some people turn to painting, music or exercise to _____ after a stressful day at work.
10. Art can help individuals _____ by allowing them to express their imagination through different forms of creativity.
11. Studying literature and the arts can encourage _____, enabling students to analyse information and evaluate different perspectives.
12. Although technological development has improved people's lives, _____ should not be the only measure of a country's success.

Exercise 2. Complete the paragraphs using suitable expressions from the vocabulary studied in Parts 1 and 2. You may need to change the grammatical form where necessary.

Topic: In today's world of advanced science and technology, people still greatly value artists such as musicians, painters and writers. Why? Are the arts as important in our lives as science and technology are?

Paragraph 1: The importance of science and technology

Science and technology play an essential role in modern society. Recent (1) _____ have improved healthcare, while (2) _____ have transformed communication and transportation. These developments have raised people's (3) _____ and contributed to (4) _____. However, technology should not be allowed to completely (5) _____, as people also have non-material needs.

Paragraph 2: The importance of the arts

The arts are equally valuable because they help (6) _____ by allowing people to experience beauty, imagination and different perspectives. Music and literature provide opportunities for (7) _____ and can (8) _____. Furthermore, artistic activities can help individuals (9) _____ and (10) _____. In this sense, the arts satisfy people's (11) _____ in ways that science and technology cannot always achieve.

LIVEWORKSHEETS