Worksheet: Staying Safe Online

Topic: Online Life

Grammar: Giving advice (should, shouldn't, ought to) and indefinite pronouns

Vocabulary: IT and Online Safety

Instructions: Complete the text with suitable words from the word banks. Use each word only once. Think carefully about the meaning of each sentence.

Part A – Indefinite Pronouns

WORD BANK

someone anyone

everyone

no one nobody none

1. _____ should be careful when sharing personal information online.

2. If _____ sends you a suspicious link, don't click on it.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Your password should be private. _____ should know it except you.

4. Is there _____ who can help me change my privacy settings?

5. I checked my messages, but _____ of them were from people I know.

6. _____ in our class knew who had created the fake account.

Part B – Giving Advice

Instructions: Complete each sentence with should, shouldn't, ought to, or ought not to. More than one answer may be possible.

7. You _____ share your home address with strangers online.

8. Teenagers _____ check their privacy settings regularly.

9. If you receive a suspicious email, you _____ open its attachments.

10. People _____ think carefully before posting photos of others.

11. You _____ use the same password for every account.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

12. We _____ report cyberbullying instead of ignoring it.

Part C – IT Vocabulary

WORD BANK

identity theft

personal data

phishing

privacy settings

password

cyberbullying

13. _____ happens when someone steals your information and pretends to be you.

14. Your full name, address and phone number are examples of _____.

15. Criminals use fake emails and websites to steal information. This is called _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

16. You can decide who sees your posts by changing your _____.

17. A strong _____ should be difficult for other people to guess.

18. Sending cruel or threatening messages repeatedly online is an example of _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS