SCHOOL FOR CHAMPIONS

Ann and Mark go to a special sports school in Vancouver, Canada. It is a school where students do different sports. Students can choose to train winter sports, for example: ice hockey, figure skating and snowboarding or water sports such as: windsurfing, sailing and swimming.

Last year, Ann joined the girls' ice hockey team and the sport became her passion. She trains every day from Monday to Saturday; there is a free day every Sunday. In the morning, she spends 2-3 hours on the ice and in the afternoons, she exercises in the gym. Ann thinks that hockey is a fast and interesting team sport.

Mark does not like team sports, so he does not do ice hockey. He practiced skiing two years ago but now he prefers snowboarding. He says that snowboarding is more exciting and more fun than skiing. Mark snowboards from the beginning of November to the end of March. He practices snowboarding three times a week. In spring and summer, when there is no snow, Mark goes windsurfing.

Both Ann and Mark are training very hard because they want to take part in the Winter Olympics and win gold medals for Canada.
