UP English Center

Name: _____

Class: _____

1. Vocabulary | Jobs and Work

Complete each sentence with ONE word from the box. Use each answer ONCE.

salary • publisher • retire • hairdresser • part-time • architect • earn • librarian • unemployed • sailor • colleague • programmer

1. The client asked an _____ to design a new sports centre.
2. Bea works _____: she only does eight hours a week.
3. The _____ helped me find a book and showed me how to borrow it.
4. The new job pays a monthly _____ of £1,800.
5. A _____ wrote the code for our school's new app.
6. I asked a _____ from my team to cover my shift.
7. I showed the _____ a photo of how I wanted my hair cut.
8. When the factory closed, my uncle was _____ for three months.
9. The _____ spent six months at sea on a cargo ship.
10. My grandad plans to _____ at 67 and stop working for good.
11. A _____ accepted her story and agreed to bring it out as a book.
12. I can _____ extra money by helping at the café on Sundays.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. Grammar | Present Perfect Continuous

Complete each gap with the present perfect continuous form of the words in brackets.

1. Mia _____ (work) at the library since June.
2. We _____ (design) a new app all week.
3. The boss _____ (interview) people all morning.
4. I _____ (look) for a part-time job since May.
5. How long _____ (you / work) at the café?
6. Leo _____ (not sleep) well lately.
7. The musicians _____ (rehearse) since nine.
8. How long _____ (she / use) this program?
9. Our postman _____ (deliver) letters since six.
10. They _____ (not get) many shifts recently.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Reading | My Saturday Job

B1 Preliminary for Schools — Reading Part 6

For each question, write the correct answer. Write ONE word for each gap.

Example: 0 AN

Last spring, I spent half (0) _____ hour talking to the owner of a bicycle repair shop about a Saturday job. I got the job and I've been working there ever (1) _____. On my first day, a customer brought in a bicycle (2) _____ back wheel wouldn't turn. I had no idea where to start.

Luckily, one of my colleagues showed me how (3) _____ check the brakes. It took me much longer (4) _____ it would have taken her, but she let me finish the repair on my own. When the customer came back, I could explain what I'd done and why.

These days, I'm responsible (5) _____ checking the tyres on every bike before it goes back to its owner. I also write down the jobs we've finished in a notebook. I do that (6) _____ order to make sure we can tell each customer exactly what we did. I used to think fixing bikes was the whole job. Now I know that explaining the repairs is just as important.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. Writing | Reply to Mike's Email

Open Power Up 6 Activity Book, p. 73, Activity 4. Read Mike's email, "Smart Dog Walking", and the four notes around it.

LIVEWORKSHEETS