

- Money Vocabulary -

What do you call...

1. the money which is lent to you by the bank? _____
2. a way of keeping your money in the bank? _____
3. the money you receive each year from work, investments, etc? _____
4. the money that the government takes from your salary? _____
5. a machine in the wall of a bank? _____
6. a metal box for keeping money? _____
7. the value of one's country money against another? _____
8. what it costs to live in a country? _____

cash-point income bank loan bank account

the cost of living the exchange rate a safe tax

WHAT CAN YOU DO WITH MONEY?

Complete the text with the words in the box. Put the verbs in the correct tense.

Derek used to be very _____. When he was a young man, he _____ a fortune from his uncle. He _____ most of it in the stock market, and _____ an enormous house which _____ US$5,000,000. He also had a good job, and he _____ his salary, so he got richer and richer. He _____ a lot of money on cars and holidays, but he was also very generous, and _____ a lot of his money to charities. But one day he started going to the casino with a friend, and that was the beginning of the end. He soon _____ everything, and after a few months he _____ his house and cars. Now he's _____. He rents a small apartment - he _____ to buy one because he's unemployed. His parents _____ him money and he also _____ money to lots of people. But he still _____ the little money he has on the lottery. He thinks his only hope of getting rich again is to _____ a big prize. Perhaps one day he will.

buy	cost	borrow	give away	broke	owe
inherit	invest	can't afford	lose	save	lend
sell	spend	waste	wealthy	win	