DAISY AND HER OLD DOLL

Listen to the audio. Read the story aloud. Then record your voice.

It was Daisy's ninth birthday. Her friends and family gave her lots of cards and different presents. The best present was the new computer which her parents gave her. 'The toys in my bedroom are old,' Daisy said. 'I don't want them now.' She gave them to her younger sister, Anna. One of the toys was a very old doll with long, curly blonde hair.

After dinner, Daisy was very tired and she went to bed. She was very sad. There weren't any toys in her toy box now – only one old comic. She tried to read it but she couldn't. She tried to play with the cat but it didn't want to play. She tried to sleep but she was afraid. She wanted her old doll. She got up and went quietly to Anna's bedroom to find it.

Her old doll was on the bookcase. She stood on a chair and took it down carefully. Daisy carried the doll back to her bedroom and put it in her bed. She was happy again and went to sleep very quickly. In the morning, Daisy said to Anna, 'Can my old doll sleep in my room?' Anna smiled and said, 'Yes!'
