Complete one task. Use an appropriate text type from the options provided for the task you chose. Write 450 to 600 words

1.
You are Bruno. After seeing Shmuel again at the fence with a black eye, you realize that your actions may have hurt your friend. You want to communicate your feelings to Shmuel and find a way to regain his trust. Write a text in which you describe how your friendship with Shmuel began, explain why you denied knowing him when he was in your house, and discuss what you could do to regain his trust and strengthen your friendship.

Email	Letter	News Report

2.
You regularly publish entries on a website dedicated to movie reviews, where readers look for detailed recommendations and critical discussions about movies. You have recently watched The Boy in the Striped Pyjamas, and the relationship between Bruno and Shmuel has made you reflect on friendship, courage and loyalty. You want to publish a new entry exploring these ideas. Write a text in which you describe the scene that had the greatest emotional impact on you, discuss the importance of courage and loyalty in Bruno and Shmuel's friendship, evaluate how effectively the movie communicates the consequences of prejudice.

Social Media Posting	Proposal	Blog

3.
You are investigating the treatment of Jewish prisoners during World War II. You have gathered information about an incident involving a young Jewish boy named Shmuel, who was mistreated while working in the house of a German commandant. You want to inform the general public about the incident. Write a text in which you describe the events that took place while Shmuel was working in the commandant's house, explain the circumstances that led to his punishment, state what is known about the consequences of the incident and Shmuel's condition afterwards.

Email	News Report	Report

Arial 16px 0 Words

LIVEWORKSHEETS