Jacob at the Baseball Game

Jacob likes to watch baseball. His favourite team is the Mona Prep Macaws. Last Saturday Jacob and his grandmother went to watch them play. Jacob's best friend Kevin was on the team. Jacob saw Kevin in the batter box. "It is time for the game to start," said the umpire. Kevin goes out on the field to bat. The pitcher and catcher are ready to play. Jacob took a deep breath and shouted, "go Mona Prep!" The pitcher threw two balls. Kevin swung his bat and missed. On the third ball Kevin swung and hit the ball. Kevin sprinted to the each of the bases. The ball was too fast for the outfielder to catch. "Mona Prep Macaws score one home run," said the umpire. Jacob's team won the game.
