True or False

Listen and answer the question below.

David lost his yellow pencil. He could not find it. "Where is my yellow pencil?" he asked his sister. His sister did not know. "I don't know where your pencil is," she said. David thought about it. He thought and thought. He used his yellow pencil before lunch. He used it to write a note to his teacher. The note said, "Dear teacher, Thank you for helping me. David." He put the note in an envelope. Where was the envelope? He looked in the kitchen. He looked on the kitchen counter. He found the envelope. It was next to the toaster. He found the pencil. It was under the toaster.

David didn´t lose his yellow pencil. ( ) True ( ) False
His sister doesn´t know where his pencil is. ( ) True ( ) False
He used his yellow pencil before dinner. ( ) True ( ) False
He wrote a note to his friend. ( ) True ( ) False
He put the note under the toaster. ( ) True ( ) False
David lost his yellow pencil. ( ) True ( ) False
The pencil was next to the envelope. ( ) True ( ) False

Brian sat down for dinner. He sat down in the chair. He sat down at the table. He looked at his white plate. He looked at his silver fork. He looked at his silver spoon. His dad said, "Pass me your plate, Brian." His dad put white rice on the plate. His dad put yellow corn on the plate. His dad put green peas on the plate. He gave the plate back to Brian. "This looks delicious," Brian said. "It is delicious," his dad said. Brian wondered why corn was yellow. He wondered why peas were green. He wondered if there were yellow peas and green corn.

Brian was having breakfast. ( ) True ( ) False
His plate was green. ( ) True ( ) False
His dad put rice on his plate. ( ) True ( ) False
Brian ate rice, beans and meat. ( ) True ( ) False
Brian said: ´´It´s delicious``. ( ) True ( ) False
His dad said: ´´ it´s delicious``. ( ) True ( ) False
He wondered if there were yellow corn. ( ) True ( ) False

LIVEWORKSHEETS