

How much do you know?

Do the following activities and check how much you remember...

1. Please read the sentences below and choose the correct option:

1. The passenger pigeon was / were from North America.
2. Dodos runned / ran very slowly.
3. Did woolly mammoths have / had long hair?
4. The dodos didn't be / weren't small birds.
5. Europeans didn't preserve / didn't preserved the habitat for passenger pigeons.

2. Now, fill in the gaps. Use the options in the box:

Were / was / wasn't / weren't/ were / Was

1. Dodos' meat good to eat. (x)
2. Woolly mammoths..... herbivores. (√)
3. passenger pigeons from Africa?
4. No, they
5. the mammoths' skin useful?
6. Yes, it

3. Let's match phrases to make correct sentences:

- | | |
|-----------------------|--|
| 1. Passenger pigeons | found a mammoth in the ice. |
| 2. Dodos | became musical instruments. |
| 3. The Woolly mammoth | were small birds. |
| 4. A Russian boy | lived in North America, Europe and Asia. |
| 5. Mammoths' tusks | were scared of people. |

4. Now complete these sentences about another extinct animal. Use verbs from the box.

Use:

extincted
were didn't like lived called weren't looked

Tasmanian Tigers the largest carnivorous in modern times. They in Australia, Tasmania and New Guinea and they in 1936.

They like dogs and people them tigers because of the stripes on their back.

They humans, so they dangerous to us.

