

Easter

Watch the video "Easter facts for kids" and do the tasks

- Easter is a holiday filled with Easter is a holiday too
- What date do we celebrate Easter?
What determines it?
- How many people celebrate Easter for religious reasons?
2 million 2 billion 20 million
- The original easter baskets / nests were actually easter nests / baskets
- What was the first country to start sharing stories about the Easter Bunny?
- What part of the chocolate bunny do most people eat first?
belly eyes feet ears
- When jelly beans became an Easter tradition?
- About the Easter traditions around the world, mark T for true or F for false:
 - () In some parts of Europe, people start Easter fires
 - () In Sweden and Finland, children dress up and go door to door asking Trick or Treat
 - () In India, people celebrate Easter with carnivals and dancing
 - () Easter is not celebrated all over the world