

Use the drag and drop feature to complete the graphic organizer with information from an excerpt (section one) from “Reconstruction in the South”
 Make sure to put the details in sequential order.

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| This explains why the south was poor during reconstruction | This explains why African American became sharecroppers during reconstruction |
| The main idea of this section is The South was extremely (very) poor during reconstruction | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Planters did not have a lot of money Did not pay wages Sharecropping kept African Americans poor Bad harvests (crops) hurt blacks and whites African Americans didn't have their own money or land African Americans had to become sharecroppers |