Dear Doctor Anne,
I have a problem I'm 15 years old. My mother works from Monday to Friday. My father works from Monday to Saturday. I have two little brothers too. I always go directly home after school. I'm a good student and always do my homework. I can't go out with my friends on school days because I take care of my brothers.
On Saturdays and Sundays, I usually help my mother with the housework. I prepare dinner during the week too. I set the table before dinner and then I wash the dishes. I fight with my brothers because they don't help me. They don't make their beds or clean their rooms.
I can't stand this! I want to leave home.
What should I do?
