

A Listen and read.

Every country has salad. Salad usually has lettuce and tomatoes. It also has other foods in it. But some places make special salads. They are interesting and delicious.

Greece has Greek salad. It has kalamata olives and feta cheese. People in Greece eat lots of cheese. That's because they love Greek salads.

Mexicans make black bean salad. It has black beans and corn. This salad doesn't have any meat. It tastes very good with chili.

Russia has Olivier salad. There are potatoes and carrots in it. There are also peas and meat. People add mustard to it, too. Russians like to eat this salad on New Year's Eve.
