

FILL IN THE BLANKS

The word “” has changed a great deal since the advent of social media platforms. While we’ve always had local communities, we now have large global communities. Now people can start hashtag campaigns to instigate societal change. is also developing due to . These days people can use online learning apps, interactive whiteboards, eBooks or virtual . Communication has also advanced thanks to the proliferation of and wearable devices such as smart watches and headsets.