

The next morning Mike goes to Todd Marin's house. He's a little afraid and worried. Zoe (in Kate Lawson's costume) follows him and hides behind the bushes. Todd opens the door, Mike doesn't lie about the interview and says the truth about the gossip magazine. Todd likes this and they go into the house.

In the review Mike says that Zoe is pretty and she speaks well but she's a young girl in an older woman's costume. Zoe reads the review and she gets angry.

Mike and Todd talk about a lot of things. They discuss Mike's play, too. The interview isn't for Yes! Magazine now. It's for Newport Weekly News.

Zoe and her friend Annie see Mike in the café. Annie gives Zoe information about him. Zoe is angry again and she's got a plan...

Later, Mike leaves Todd Marin's house and they shake hands friendly. Zoe watches and she's amazed. Mike sees her and tells her that the interview isn't for Yes! Magazine. Kate takes off her wig and glasses and Mike recognizes Zoe. He's embarrassed. Zoe proves him that she's a good actress and they go to the café.

Zoe Baker is seventeen years old. She works in a bookstore and she often acts in plays. This week the play is Romeo and Juliet. Mike is a student at Newport College and he likes writing. He writes a review of Romeo and Juliet for Newport Weekly News.

On Thursday Mike's in the café. A woman comes to him and says: 'My name is Kate Lawson. I'm the editor of Yes! Magazine. Can you do an interview for me?'. Mike's going to interview Todd Marin but the famous playwright doesn't like gossip magazines.
