Going on a Walk

"I'm _____ (Adjective)!" I shouted _____ (Adverb) as I looked out the window of my _____ (Noun). The sun is _____ (Verb-ing) and there is not a _____ (Noun) in the sky. That's when I got a _____ (Adjective) idea: I should go for a walk in the _____ (Noun)! I put on my _____ (Pl. Noun) and _____ (Past Verb) a _____ (Noun) and a pair of _____ (Pl. Noun).

I _____ (Adverb) _____ (Past Verb) out of the door and headed towards the Medway Valley _____ (Noun) trail. I decided to begin at the _____ (Noun) of Ontario _____ (Noun).

The _____ (Noun) is _____ (Adjective), but there will be a lot to see! The Medway _____ (Noun) follows the trail and there are plenty of _____ (Animal) in the _____ (Noun).

In the _____ (Noun) I can hear many birds _____ (Verb-ing) and when I look at the ground, I can see _____ (Body Part) prints from _____ (Pl.Animal). Yes, I think this will be a very _____ (Adjective) walk!

Click here to hear the original story