

READ THE TEXT AND COMPLETE WITH ONE WORD IN EACH GAP

Many universities around the world are proud to (1) _____ long histories and strong traditions. However, very few universities can claim to be among the oldest in the world. According (2) _____ the Guinness Book of World Records, the University of Al-Karaouine in Fes, Morocco, is the oldest surviving university in the world. It was probably founded in 859 and became a famous place to study natural sciences. In 1957, after (3) _____ than 1,000 years as a university, Al-Karaouine added mathematics, physics, chemistry, and various foreign languages to (4) _____ traditional list of subjects for study. Today there are (5) _____ many universities that students don't need to go far to study. They (6) _____ sure to find one close to home.