

Simple Past of "BE" Affirmative

I was

He was

She was

It was

We were

You were

They were

Now, answer this question, when do we use *was-were?

Verb to be in Simple Past

I was in Colombia.

She was a teacher.

It was a dog.

We were friends.

You were students.

They were in Peru.

Verb to be in Simple Present

I am in Colombia.

She is a teacher.

It is a dog.

We are friends.

You are students.

They are in Peru.

Look at the following paragraph, read and complete with WAS or WERE.

Julian Martinez _____ a good man. He lived with his family in a beautiful countryside. Julian _____ born in Cuenca-Ecuador. His wife, Susana _____ born in Venezuela. They had two children, Tania and Pablo. Tania _____ a very intelligent girl; she liked to study a lot. Tania and her brother _____ in the same school. Pablo _____ friendly and liked to play the guitar. Julian and Susana _____ a happy couple. Now, they live in another country. That's what I remember from my childhood neighbors.

By: Teacher Paola Córdova

