Hey Ben!

How are things? I 'don't know if you know, but I've got a summer job in Munich for a few weeks. I 'm living with my German cousins who live here. It's great here and I 'm enjoying myself a lot.

I'm working in a small shop which 's selling designer clothes and the other people here are 're working there too.

It's 's really nice. We always 're having lots of fun in the day. In the evening when the shop 's closed, we usually all 're having dinner together somewhere. I 'm loving Munich! It's a really interesting city and I 'm practising my German too!
What 's (you) this summer?
's (you) to come and visit me in Munich? It would be great to see you again and there's lots of space at my cousins' house. I 'm spending at weekends, so we could spend some time together. Let me know!

GRAMMAR TIME > PAGE 118

In 2014 thirteen-year-old Malavath Poorna became the youngest girl to climb Mount Everest. She was living in a village in the countryside with her parents when a government organisation chose her and a friend for the mountain challenge. At the time, Malavath was looking for a chance to do something different and she was happy to go. She flew for the first time in her life to a special mountain centre where she trained for eight months. The training was hard and sometimes the temperature dropped as low as -35°C. Malavath also hated the packaged food that she had to eat. It didn't smell nice and she missed her mum's cooking! The climb lasted fifty-two days. At times it was dangerous and they had to walk very slowly, but Malavath didn't give up. When she finally raised India's flag on the highest peak in the world, she said she felt great and very proud of herself. Since the climb, Malavath has gone back to school because she couldn't study while she was training. She's also met the Prime Minister, who encouraged her to complete her studies. Has the climb changed her? Definitely! Now she wants to climb more mountains around the world.
