

Roman Britain

Watch the video.

Match the names with definitions:

- | | |
|--------------------------|------------------------------|
| a Britannia | 1 the Roman name for Bath |
| b Hadrian | 2 some Roman letters |
| c Hadrian's Wall | 3 the Roman name for Britain |
| d the Vindolanda Tablets | 4 a Roman ruler |
| e Aquae Sulis | 5 a popular place for Romans |
| f the Roman Baths | 6 a Roman wall |

Do the sentences describe Hadrian's Wall or the Roman Baths?

- 1 It's the north of England.
- 2 It's in the south-west of England.
- 3 The Romans constructed it in a village.
- 4 The Romans finished it in six years.
- 5 The Romans named it after a Roman ruler.
- 6 The Romans liked talking to their friends there.
- 7 Archaeologists discovered the Vindolanda Tablets nearby.
- 8 A lot of people from all around the country visited it.

Choose the correct words.

- 1 The Celts were / weren't powerful in Britain before the Romans invaded.
- 2 The Romans started / finished Hadrian's Wall in 122 AD.
- 3 Hadrian's Wall was / wasn't 170 kilometres long.
- 4 The Vindolanda Tablets were / weren't near Hadrian's Wall.
- 5 Bath was / wasn't a big city when the Romans arrived.
- 6 The water in Baths is / isn't about 55 degrees Celsius.
- 7 The Romans used / didn't use the Roman Baths for meeting friends.
- 8 People stopped / didn't stop using the Roman Baths when the Romans left Britain.

Complete the summary.

The Romans invaded Britain about _____ years ago. They called the country _____ and constructed many buildings, roads and cities there. They started _____ in 122 AD and finished it six years later. Archaeologists discovered the _____ near the wall. The Romans constructed the _____ in the city of Bath, which they called _____. They used the baths for washing, but also talked to their _____ there. The Romans stayed in Britain for about _____ years.

