

HAMBURGER PARAGRAPH WRITING

DIRECTIONS: Drag and drop the parts of the paragraph into the correct place.

The diagram shows a hamburger with five layers. The top bun is labeled 'Introduction/Topic Sentence' with an orange arrow pointing to the top empty box. The next three layers (green, red, and brown) are each labeled 'Supporting Detail' with a red bracket and arrow pointing to the three middle empty boxes. The bottom bun is labeled 'Conclusion/Closing Sentence' with a blue arrow pointing to the bottom empty box.

I didn't go out, but I did a lot of things. I stayed home the whole week. I worked a little and I did my chores.

During Holy Week, I had a very relaxing time.

I had fun doing relaxing things during Holy Week. I needed to rest.

I also watched TV, played video games and listened to music. On Saturday, a friend stayed over and we made hamburgers. They were so yummy.
