

		HOW DO YOU FEEL?
Choose the correct phrase for the picture.
	☐ I feel fine . ☐ I feel sick . ☐ I feel good .		☐ I feel fine . ☐ My stomach hurts. ☐ I have a headache .		☐ My tooth hurts. ☐ I feel fine . ☐ I have a stomachache .
HOW DO THEY FEEL?
	☐ She feels good . ☐ She has a fever . ☐ She has an earache .		☐ She has an earache . ☐ She feels fine . ☐ She has a cold .		☐ He feels good . ☐ He has a headache . ☐ He has a stomachache .
	☐ He feels fine . ☐ He has a toothache . ☐ He has a cold .		☐ He feels good . ☐ He feels sick . ☐ He has a fever .		☐ They have fevers . ☐ They are fine . ☐ They have colds .

Illnesses

-Asthma -A cold -A cough -A headache -A stomachache -A toothache
 -The flu -A fever -An earache

_____ : The pain in a person's belly. Notice how the word can be spelled together or as two words, depending on the country.

_____ : a continuous pain in the head

_____ : the common name given for influenza. It is a contagious viral infection of the respiratory passages that causes fever and severe aching

_____ : the act of expelling air from the lungs with a sudden sharp sound.

_____ : a common viral infection which causes mucus to run from the nose, gives a sore throat and often includes sneezing.

_____ : a respiratory condition where spasms in the lungs cause difficulty in breathing. An asthmatic uses an inhaler to calm the spasms.

_____ : pain inside the ear

_____ : an abnormally high body temperature, usually accompanied by shivering and a headache.

_____ : the pain in a tooth or teeth.