

The Emperor's New Clothes

Fairy Tale by H.C.Andersen

Watch the fairy tale and find out is the sentence true (T) or false (F)

1. There was a vain emperor who loved food.
2. The Emperor stood in front of the mirror only in the morning.
3. The Emperor was interested only in changing clothes.
4. The Emperor didn't want the people could see his new suits.

5. The Emperor wasn't interested in ministers' opinion of his clothes.
6. Three men went to the palace to weave new clothes to the emperor.
7. The clothes were visible only to those who were fit to do their jobs they were doing.
8. The weavers needed two bags of gold to start the work.
9. Two looms were set up in a room in the palace.
10. The Emperor decided to send his trusted minister to have a look.
11. The minister had served the Emperor only some years.
12. The minister admired beautiful and well-design cloth.
13. The Emperor wanted to wear the suit in a big procession.
14. The weavers needed only one bag of gold and some finest silk.
15. The weavers were working all days and never at nights.

16. The emperor was very curious about the new clothes.
17. The trusted courtier was the third who saw the new suit.
18. The courtier described the suit as the weavers have done.
19. The weavers made a jacket, trousers, and a cloak for the emperor.
20. The suit was as heavy as spider's web.
21. The crowd was in silence to see their Emperor naked.
22. Only the woman said the truth.
23. The two weavers made fool of the Emperor and his ministers.