

Let's describe a friend.

Look at the following example (image). Remember to use different adjectives, phrases and linking words.

Description of a friend- PLAN

INTRODUCTION: General information

- I met Jane two months ago when she moved next door. She's my age and we go to the same school.

MAIN PART

1. Personality description (good and bad qualities)

- Jane has a great sense of humor so she makes me laugh all the time. She's also very kind. She's the one I turn to when I'm upset...However, Jane can be annoying sometimes. The most annoying thing about her is that she's stubborn. When she makes a decision she never changes her mind.

2. Hobbies/interests and what you do together

- Jane and I spend our spare time together because we have the same interest. We are both into R&B...

3. CONCLUSION: General opinion of this person

- I like hanging out with Jane because we get along well and have lots of fun together. She isn't perfect but I know I can always rely on her.

Introduction: Give some general information about a person (name, relationship to you)

Main Part: (2 paragraphs)

1. Describe his/her personality. Mention good/bad qualities. use phrases like:

He/She is very/really/...

He /She is the one who....

The best/worst thing about him/her is that he /she...

He/ She is also....

2. Describe his/her hobbies/interests and what you usually do together:

We're both interested in...

His/Her favorite hobby is...

She/He is into...can't stand..

Conclusion: Give a general opinion of this person

- Write about your friend following the plan above.
