

IF Clauses

I. Continue the statements:

In Conditional

1. Type 1 we use _____ in the IF-Clause and _____ in the Main Clause.
2. Type 2 we use _____ in the IF-Clause and _____ in the Main Clause.
3. Type 3 we use _____ in the IF-Clause and _____ in the Main Clause.

II. Match the conditional with its function:

- |                                     |                                      |
|-------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| 1. We use Conditional Type 1 | a. to express past regrets.          |
| 2. We use Conditional Type 2 | b. to express future real actions.   |
| 3. We use Conditional Type 3 | c. to express future unreal actions. |

III. Open the brackets to write the correct tense:

1. Will you be very disappointed if we (not come) _____?
2. I would be delighted if I (have) _____ the opportunity to travel.
3. If I had left earlier I (catch) _____ the flight.
4. If I (buy) _____ a new house, I would organize a party.
5. If he (do) _____ that, he will regret afterwards.
6. If I (follow) _____ your advice, I wouldn't have got into trouble.

IV. Finish the sentences:

1. If I had a brother, _____
2. Kate would have got a prize if _____
3. Ann would understand her friend if _____

V. Use the correct tense:

1. The girls (wear) _____ their new dresses yesterday if we (invite) _____ them to the party.
2. If it (not stop) _____ raining, we (stay) _____ at home this weekend.
3. If I (speak) _____ 3 languages, I (get) _____ a good job.
4. If I (be) _____ you, I (practise) _____ the rules more.

VI. Translate into English using the correct tense in Conditional Mood.

1. Dacă el ar fi mai deștept, l-aș iubi mai mult.
  - a. If he would be cleverer, I would love him more.
  - b. If he would be cleverer, I will love him more.
  - c. If he were cleverer, I would love him more.
  - d. If he were cleverer, I will love him more.

2. Maria ar fi scris eseul bine dacă ar fi înțeles tema.
  - a. Mary would write the essay better if she had understood the theme.
  - b. Mary would have written the essay better if she had understood the theme.
  - c. Mary would have written the essay better if she understood the theme.
  - d. Mary would have written the essay better if she would have understood the theme.

3. Dacă mama va avea timp, vom merge la cumpărături.
  - a. If mother has time, we will go shopping.
  - b. If mother had time, we will go shopping.
  - c. If mother will have time, we will go shopping.
  - d. If mother would have time, we would go shopping.

4. Dacă aș face temele de acasă mai repede, m-aș duce cu prietenii afară.
  - a. If I'd do my homework quicker, I'd go out with my friends.
  - b. If I did my homework quicker, I'd go out with my friends.
  - c. If I'd done my homework quicker, I'd go out with my friends.
  - d. If I did my homework quicker, I'd have gone out with my friends.

5. Dacă tata ar fi aflat adevărul, el m-ar fi pedepsit.
  - a. If father found out the truth, he would have punished me.
  - b. If father found out the truth, he would punish me.
  - c. If father would find out the truth, he would have punished me.
  - d. If father had found out the truth, he would have punished me.

6. Vom organiza multe concursuri dacă vremea va fi frumoasă.
  - a. We'd organize more contests if the weather will be fine.
  - b. We'll organize more contests if the weather will be fine.
  - c. We'll organize more contests if the weather is fine.
  - d. We'd organize more contests if the weather would be fine.

Well done!

