

Shakespeare's plays (part 2)

1) OBSERVE these 2 charts and ANSWER the questions below.

Shakespeare at 452: how many plays do you know?

Which, if any, of the following Shakespeare plays have you ever read or seen?

- Which Shakespeare play is the most played in the world? _____
- What genre of play is it? It is a _____
- Which plays comes second? _____
- Which one is the third most played? _____
- What genre of play is it? It is a _____
- What word is defined as "a small segment of a market, a population"? _____
- What word is defined as "Used large portions of a population or market"? _____
- What word is defined as "outside the mainstream, often hidden and unknown"? _____
- What word is defined as "Common among the general public; generally accepted."? _____
- What percentage of Britons have read or seen "Romeo and Juliet"? _____
- Which of these plays is not considered "mainstream"? _____
- What percentage of Britons have seen or read this play? _____
- How many Shakespeare plays has a Britton seen or read on average? _____

2) FOLLOW the chart on the next page to find out which Shakespeare play is made for you.

Would you like to, read it?

