

1. Complete. Use the causative form.

1. She (her bedroom/ redecorate) last year. She had her bedroom redecorated last year.

2. This is the third time we (the printer/ fix) in one week.

3. We (the air conditioner/ must/ service) as soon as possible.

4. The students (usually/ their essays/check) every Monday.

5. Hundreds of people (their home/destroy) by the hurricane last week.

2. Write sentences. Use the causative form.

1. Alison/ her portrait/ paint/ famous painter (street artist) PAST SIMPLE

Alison didn't have her portrait painted by famous artist. She had it painted by a street artist.

2. We/our holiday photos/ print (upload) PAST CONTINUOUS

3. He / the new laptop/deliver/his home (his office) BE GOING TO

4. Francis /his computer/service/ a friend (a computer technician) PRESENT PERFECT SIMPLE

5. Leon/his passport/renew (his driving licence) SHOULD

3. Write questions. Use causative form.

1. you/ever/your picture/take/by a professional photographer?

Have you ever had your pictures taken by a professional photographer?

2. how often/you/need to/your smartphone/repair?

3. your bedroom/redecorate/ next year?

4. you/a new key/make/after you lost it?

5. you/usually/the shopping/deliver/to your house?
