

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grammar

Using More and Most with Adjectives

The words more and most often are used with adjectives of two or more syllables to make comparisons. Use more to compare two persons, places, or things. Use most to compare three or more persons, places, or things.

Write more or most to complete each sentence.

1. New York may be America's _____ exciting city.
2. The Statue of Liberty is the _____ beautiful thing I have ever seen.
3. It was _____ incredible than the World Trade Center.
4. I was _____ eager to see it than he was.
5. The boat ride was the _____ thrilling part of all.
6. It was _____ fun than riding the subway.
7. A cat is the _____ relaxed animal I know.
8. Some people find it _____ difficult to relax than others.
9. Stretching is the _____ pleasant exercise of all.
10. Exercises that stretch the whole body can be _____ valuable than games.