My grandmother didn't wear jeans or T-shirts when she was young. She wore shirts and dresses. She didn't have much money but she was clever and she made lots of clothes (clothes = garments). In this photo she's wearing a dress made of cotton. It didn't cost very much! When my mum was a teenager, in the 1990s, women wore trousers and everyone had jeans. These days teenagers wear comfortable clothes like hoodies and tracksuits.
