COLOURS-Think Teen G Gymnasiou unit 7

Watch the video and answer the questions   https://video.link/w/6a0ic

PART 1 . COMPLETE THE SENTENCES WITH ONE WORD.

The human eye can see _____different colours. Colours can tell a lot about a person's _____. We can look at someone's clothes, car, gadgets, even the colour of their _____to understand what they are like.

Companies know that colours can also affect _____decisions. For example, big brands include the colour _____in their logos because it is eye-catching.

BLUE is the colour of trust and loyalty and it makes you feel _____. It is the perfect colour to wear if you are at an _____or want to close a deal.

RED is the colour of _____,power and energy. It is both stimulating and _____. Boxers wear red gloves and traffic lights are red to imply _____.

BLACK shows that the person wearing it has power and _____ and is not easy to manipulate. It is an attractive colour with _____ effects.

WHITE is the colour of purity and _____, that is why brides wear it.

GREEN is a _____colour and aids clearer vision. Walls in _____can be seen in this colour.

YELLOW is the colour of optimism. It is also irritating (that's why _____ restaurants use it, to deter customers from staying there too long). It is known to increase _____.

PURPLE is a calm and_____ colour. It expresses authority, _____ and elegance.

PINK, like white, shows innocence. People who wear pink are kind and _____.

PART 2. MARK THE STATEMENTS T (true) or F (false)

CAR COLOUR

- People with blue cars are practical but careless. _
- Red cars are involved in most accidents. _
- Silver cars are involved in fewer accidents. _
- The owner of a white car is probably an extrovert. _
- Yellow car owners are optimistic. _
- Drivers who like purple cars feel unique. _
- Silver car drivers have a calm, cool personality. _
- You can always tell a lot about a person's personality from the colour of their car. _