

IF CLAUSES : TYPE 1

IF CLAUSES : TYPE 2

Fill in the blanks with the appropriate form of the given verbs to make first conditional sentences.

1. If I _____ (pass) all my exams, we _____ (celebrate).
2. If you _____ (have) any money left, _____ (you/buy) me chewing gums?
3. Mom _____ (be) very disappointed if dad _____ (forget) her birthday again.
4. If the dog _____ (keep) barking, the neighbours _____ (complain).
5. If the weather _____ (be) nice tomorrow, we _____ (have) a picnic.
6. If you _____ (not study) harder, you _____ (fail) the exam.
7. _____ you _____ (come) with us if someone _____ (lend) you a bike.
8. If he _____ (move) to Berlin, he _____ easily _____ (find) a job.
9. Children _____ (have) such terrible teeth if they _____ (not take) better care of them.

Fill in the blanks with the appropriate form of the given verbs to make second conditional sentences.

1. What countries _____ (you/want) to visit if you _____ (have) lots of money?
2. If I _____ (be) you, I _____ (not eat) there. The food's really bad.
3. I think Tricia _____ (feel) better if she _____ (stop) smoking and _____ (do) more exercise.
4. If I _____ (have) more free time, I _____ (take up) a hobby.
5. If I _____ (see) a ghost, I _____ (scream)
6. If I _____ (have) a good voice, I _____ (become) a singer.
7. My grandpa _____ (call) the police, if he _____ (hear) strange noises at night.
8. I _____ (invest) money in good computer if I _____ (be) you.
9. If Britney _____ (join) a gym club, she _____ (be) more motivated to work out.

