

Lesson Seven

On the lines provided, write the word or words in the sentence which mean the same or nearly the same as the target word.

1. Since few people can stand arrogance, no one really liked Mrs. Snodgrass' haughty mannerisms.

The word(s) which means the same as haughty: _____

2. To imbibe a glass or two of whiskey may be sociable, but drinking seven or eight is dangerous and reckless.

The word(s) which means the same as imbibe: _____

3. Rachel knew that the danger was imminent; it could happen any minute now.

The word(s) which means the same as imminent: _____

4. John was sure that his speech impediment was a handicap that he could overcome.

The word(s) which means the same as impediment: _____

5. Not an impetuous woman, Joan hated being forced to make a hasty decision.

The word(s) which means the same as impetuous: _____

6. Shortly after Joe was sent to jail, his friends were also incarcerated.

The word(s) which means the same as incarcerated: _____

7. Though Sam's hint was clear, Sally was not sure what he was insinuating.

The word(s) which means the same as insinuating: _____

8. Because of his integrity, Abraham Lincoln was called "Honest Abe."

The word(s) which means the same as integrity: _____

9. The fresh, invigorating mountain air filled him with energy.

The word(s) which means the same as invigorating: _____

10. They all knew that Mrs. Gotrocks' party would be extravagant because she was famous for her overly expensive and showy ways.

The word(s) which means the same as extravagant: _____