

Here & there

School days

 In Britain, pupils usually finish school early. So they can:

- practise after-school activities,
- work odd jobs (like babysitting, petsitting, delivering newspapers...).

 What about you? What time do you finish school?

Today's date :

..... France, we finish 5 :00 pm.

....., we u..... can't practice after school activities

We can r..... join a club.

Wehave time for odd jobs or to have fun

And we do homework

In England, school finishes early (≠ late). What can British pupils do after school?

They can (faire des petits boulots) or..... (faire des activités extra scolaires). They can (rejoindre, s'inscrire) all sorts of clubs (comme) the b__ club, the p__ club, the f__ club, the r__ club, the d__ club, the r__ club, f__ club or even (même) strange (bizarre)
 ones like a reptile club !

What is the question ? (book p. 45)

- you tell us the French ? Wh..... there ?
 It's a lot of fun! You can participate in a variety of activities : learning about French culture, watching French programmes, reading French magazines
- Wh..... if (=si) French ?
 Oh that's not a problem ! You don't even (même pas) have to be in French class to join. You can come participate at any time (= when you want)
- When the club ?
 It meets ONCE A WEEK, every Friday (chaque vendredi/ tous les vendredis)
- Wh..... like this club ?
- French club is a fun way to learn about French culture. You can meet new people, discover French cinema and food..... Actually, my favourite thing is the cheese tasting !

Civilisation :

Quel est l'équivalent britannique de la classe de sixième? → la classe de sixième française correspond à la « » au Royaume-Uni.

Donne deux spécificités du système scolaire britannique ? 1) Ils doivent porter un uniforme, donc ils ne peuvent pas choisir ce qu'ils portent. 2) Ils finissent l'école vers et ils peuvent

Vocabulary here : <https://quizlet.com/501402906/school-clubs-flash-cards/?new>

Here & there

School clubs

 In Britain, students can join lots of different clubs:

| | |
|----------------------|-------------------|
| Book Club | Photo Club |
| Robotics Club | Radio Club |
| Film Club | Drama Club |
| Football Club | |

And even sometimes a Reptile Club!

Watch

Here & there

School days

 In Britain, pupils usually finish school early. So they can:

- practise after-school activities,
- work odd jobs (like babysitting, petsitting, delivering newspapers...).

 What about you? What time do you finish school?

Answers

IN France, we finish AT 5 :00 pm.

So we can usually can't practice after school activities

We can rarely join a club.

We don't have time for odd jobs or to have fun

And we MUST do OUR homework

In England, school finishes early (≠ late). What can British pupils do after school?

They can work odd jobs or practice after-school activities. They can join all sorts of clubs like book clubs, photo clubs, film clubs, radio clubs, drama clubs, robotics clubs, football clubs or even strange ones like a reptile club !

What is the question ?

1. Can you tell us about the French club ? What can you do there ?

It's a lot of fun! You can participate in a variety of activities : learning about French culture, watching French programmes, reading French magazines

2. WhAT if (=si) pupils can't speak French ?

Oh that's not a problem ! You don't even (même pas) have to be in French class to join. You can come participate at any time (= when you want)

3. When does the club meet ?

It meets ONCE A WEEK, every Friday

4. WhAT DO LIKE ABOUT this club ?

5. French club is a fun way to learn about French culture. You can meet new people, discover French cinema and food..... Actually, my favourite thing is the cheese tasting !

Civilisation :

Quel est l'équivalent britannique de la classe de sixième? → la classe de sixième française correspond à la « YEAR 7 » au Royaume-Uni.

Donne deux spécificités du système scolaire britannique ?

- 1) Ils doivent porter un uniforme, donc ils ne peuvent pas choisir ce qu'ils portent.
- 2) Ils finissent l'école tôt vers 15h et ils peuvent faire des petits boulots où rejoindre toutes sortes de clubs ou activités extra scolaires

Here & there

School clubs

 In Britain, students can join lots of different clubs:

*Book Club Photo Club
Robotics Club Radio Club
Film Club Drama Club
Football Club*

And even sometimes a Reptile Club!