

PREPARATION: Listening

1 Read the exam task and answer the following questions:

- How many people will you hear?
- What are they going to talk about?

2 Do you ever watch reality shows? Do you like them?
Why?/Why not?

EXAM STRATEGY

- Read the exam question and identify the topic.
- The sentences paraphrase or summarise what the speakers will say. Underline the key words in each sentence so you know what to listen out for.
- Listen to the recording carefully, because the words you will hear will not be the same as those in the sentences.

EXAM TASK – Listening

 LISTENING 18 Listen to five people talking about reality shows. Match the information (A–F) with the speakers (1–5). There is one sentence that you do not need.

	SPEAKER
A This person would like to be on a reality show.
B This person once wanted to go on a reality show.
C This person believes that anyone could be on TV.
D This person once appeared on a reality show.
E This person has changed his/her opinion of reality shows.
F This person doesn't like the people on reality shows.	