MAKING DECISIONS

My mother says that we should think 1 every decision we make. We must realise that we are responsible for our decisions, especially when they have a big 2 on our lives, for not just a day, week or month, but for many years – sometimes the rest of our lives. For example, my cousin decided to get a dog. She did not realise how 3 time she would need to take proper care of the dog. She's a businesswoman, and she lives alone. When one busy person has to take care of a dog, it's a real challenge, and in most cases, unfortunately the dog 4 because of it. My cousin's dog was lucky in some way, as my mother decided to help it and to help my 5 cousin at the same time. There are five people in our family: our parents and three children. We all love animals, and we decided to take this poor dog in. We 6 all the duties, and the dog is very happy. It doesn't have to spend long hours alone, and it 7 for long walks every day. Before we took the dog, my mother had explained to us how much our life would change, and it 8
