

The History of Blues Music

1. Who is called the 'Father of the Blues'?
a. W. C. Army
b. W. C. Handy
c. W. C. Necky
d. W. C. Hammy
2. Blues music started in ____.
a. London and Paris
b. Memphis and New Orleans
c. Tennessee and Kentucky
d. New York and Pennsylvania
3. Blues music originates from ____.
a. spirituals and work songs
b. folk songs
c. jazz music
d. traditional colonial songs
4. How many chords are needed to make a Blues song?
a. 3
b. 5
c. 2
d. 1
5. The Blues are typically about ____.
a. happy times
b. colors
c. sad times
d. sports
6. How many bars are commonly in a Blues song?
a. 16
b. 8
c. 12
d. 4
7. Blues songs are typically played in a ____ tempo.
a. really fast
b. slow
c. medium
d. changing
8. Which of the following was not a famous Blues player?
a. Muddy Waters
b. B.B. King
c. Willie Dixon
d. Bobby Blacktop
9. Which Blues instrument is also called the mouthorgan?
a. trumpet
b. clarinet
c. harmonica
d. flute
10. True or False: The harmonica has been around for 5000 years and was invented by the Japanese.
a. True
b. False