

The Minister's Black Veil

Nathaniel Hawthorne

Multiple choice: choose the best word

One Sunday the people of Milford (0) surprised by Reverend Hooper. He arrived in church (1) a black veil. His (2) that day was about hidden sins. (3) that morning Reverend Hooper went to the funeral of a young woman. During the (4) a woman thought she saw the Reverend walking hand in hand with the ghost of the woman. That evening Reverend Hooper married a young couple. But his black veil (5) sadness to that happy occasion. The next day a group of people from his (6) went to ask him the reason for the veil, (7) they only became confused and nervous. Then his fiancée Elizabeth asked him to take off the veil. She said that it caused (8) He refused, and she left him. He then lived a lonely life behind his veil. He did, (9), become a better minister. (10) the end of his life, Elizabeth and the Reverend Clark of Westbury were at his deathbed. Reverend Clark tried to lift the veil. But Reverend Hooper stopped him. He then died and was buried with his black veil.